

Digital Ireland Forum September 2013: Global 2.0

Friday, 20 September 2013 from 08:00 to 11:00 (BST),

The Convention Centre, Dublin, Ireland

Ireland is now a key location for high-tech, mobile, internet, media and games companies. Digital transformation is part of their DNA. Success in growing and fostering these next-generation sectors are key to our competitiveness and jobs growth in Ireland.

The next generation of business will be internationally focused, providing digital services to customers in real-time in markets around the world. Ireland needs to ensure it continues to attract and develop these new model companies.

Through focus and leadership we can harness our unique ecosystem for servicing a digital world from a truly Digital Ireland.

Topics to be addressed at Digital Ireland Forum: Global 2.0 include:

- 21st-century infrastructure
- The digital export opportunity
- An ecosystem for digital entrepreneurs
- Attracting emerging tech companies
- The industries where we can be winners
- Talent: securing the best and brightest
- The Europe advantage
- International competitors examined
